Excellent. As a caveat, I fly to India the first week of August to conduct some training and will be gone for two weeks, so it would definitely be ideal if we can try to schedule something in July.

And yes, had a great conversation with AfricaCheck this morning, excited and hopeful we have ways to move forward!

Best,
Alanna

Alanna,

Sadly, I've been pulled into a conflicting meeting and recommend we reschedule for when the three of us are available. I'll compare calendars again for later this month.

I also want to thank you for speaking with AfricaCheck about your work in Tunisia. Looks like we might have a way forward to continue your great work!

Thanks,
